

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1891.

NO. 59

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Letcher Owsley has tendered his resignation as captain of the Gaither Light Infantry.

—Miss Sallie Jennings, aged 69, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Clayton Anderson, Tuesday night and was buried at Antioch Wednesday afternoon.

—A large crowd of young folks from here attended the "candy pulling" given by Miss Dove Harris at her school-house near Hyattsville Monday. They all report a delightful time.

—Any one desiring to have any corn moved will do well to call on Jack Stormes, John Farra, John L. Anderson or Charley Anderson. They are "hosses" and will do you right.

—The New York Press says: "Appearances indicate that a picturesque feature of the present campaign will be the jackass in politics." The Press fails to say whether there is anything new in this.

—The services of the balloon weather with are much needed around Lancaster just at this time. The water in the cisterns is giving out, the springs are going dry and the grass is becoming parched for want of rain.

—Tuesday at noon as the special freight and stock train was leaving town two cars of wheat and two of cattle were derailed. The accident was caused by the track spreading. It was 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning before the track was cleared.

—Mr. Madison Cawein, the latest Kentucky poet, writes of a "Tall shaped lady like the letter L." If he had said in plain Kentucky vernacular that she looked like a noble grand worthy bean pole, his meaning would have been better understood.

—The Reading, (Pa.) county convention, held on the 19th inst., elected the first delegate in the United States to the Republican National Convention of 1892. The delegate, Augustus M. High, was "instructed for Blaine." How is that for High?

—The poet of the New York Press has this about the tourists: "They're back from the mountains, they're back from the shore, where erst were the rout and the revel, and the pastor returns to his people once more from the world, the flesh and the devil." This reminds us of the preacher who took for his text, "The world, the flesh and the devil," and opened by announcing that he would speak briefly on the world, dwell lightly upon the flesh and hasten on to the devil as fast as possible.

—Miss Mamie Curry has returned from a visit to Misses Georgie and Tom Moore at Marksbury. Mrs. Fan Huffman Faris is able to be out again after a brief illness. Tom Ferrill, of Rowland, was here Wednesday. Tom is getting to be almost as broad as he is long. Dan Lyons was in town Tuesday, representing a publishing house. Mr. Geo. Walden is in Cincinnati buying goods for W. T. West. During his absence T. W. Reid fills his place as salesman for Mr. West. Hiram Hiatt, of Missouri, was in town Wednesday. Maj. G. Matt Adams was here this week mingling with his many friends.

—It is well enough now and then to get back to original principles. Acting upon this idea the con. con. has appointed a committee on punctuation. This is eminently proper, for if perchance a comma should be inserted where a semi-colon ought to be, there is no telling what terrible results might follow. Wonderful changes are caused by not minding your stops and by not being particular with your punctuation. A minister was once handed a paper to read in his church to the following effect: "A man going to sea, his wife desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety," but as the comma was placed after the word wife instead of the word sea, it sounded to the astonished audience something like this: A man going to see his wife, desires the prayers of the congregation for his safety." But all jesting aside, it is important that the constitution makers should dot their "i's" and cross their "t's" and mind their p's and g's for therein consists the safety of the State. It would be well if they would not stop at this, but appoint a committee on spelling also, and go on up into arithmetic and especially grammar and logic; and when this is done and the reunion is complete, why not submit it again to the people, for whom it is intended.

A Los Angeles, Cal., paper says there are 60 slaves in that city whose owners hold bills of sale of their bodies and deal in them as horses and cattle are bought and sold. The slaves are Chinese women and dare not attempt to escape, as such an attempt would mean death. They range in price anywhere from $600 to $3,000, according to their age and beauty.

Antelope Valley, says the Los Angeles Times, reports this year 65,000 acres of wheat as fine as any in California, which will average 8½ sacks (about 1,100 lbs. to the acre). Four or five years ago this vast territory was in effect a desert. Now its grain crop alone will bring to the producers over $1,000,000.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Mary Mortimer Talmage, the beautiful daughter of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, is soon to wed Mr. Daniel D. Mangum, Jr.

—During the last fiscal year $88,737 gallons of rum were shipped from Boston to Africa, and the shippers realized the handsome amount of $964,694 for their contribution to the mission for the christianization of the Dark Continent.

—Henderson Young and Miss Annie Belle Baugh were made husband and wife by Judge W. E. Varnon yesterday. The bride is a pretty young lady of some 20 summers, while the groom is industrious young farmer. May happiness always be theirs.

—Mr. Joe Carr, K. C. Agent at Lancaster, and Miss Dora Hacker, daughter of Mr. Theodore Hacker, of East Main street, will be married to-day. The groom is an excellent young railroad man and the bride a pretty girl in her teens and the Climax wishes them years of happiness.—Richmond Climax.

—Mrs. Nancy Franks, who died in Grant county this week, had reached the unusual age of 109 years. Her husband died at the age of 44 and she never remarried. This couple had 8 children and from these have sprung 89 grand children, 594 great-grandchildren, 128 great-great-grandchildren and 56 great-great-great-grandchildren, the five generations representing 776 persons.

—Thirty years ago and more fifty ladies of the First church at Milford, Conn., formed a society of old maids, every one of whom vowed they would never marry. Each member paid $5 on admission, the interest on the principal thus raised to be expended in annual dinners, while the principal itself was to go to the member who remained unmarried the longest. In the three decades which have succeeded all but 15 of the original 50 have married, and, as the storms of 60 winters have whitened the hair of the faithful, it looks as if they would stick. It is a question who will outlive all the others and receive the reward, which now amounts to nearly $1,000. They held their annual banquet Monday.

A DELICATE QUESTION.—"I've got a job for you," said the hard-faced woman to the young lawyer, according to the Chicago News.

"Yes?"

"That's what. Damage suit."

"You see, my man he goes to a picnic not long ago and there was a b'loon ascension. Of course he had to be foolin' around helpin' to hold the thing down, and when the feller hollers 'let go,' Eleazar—that was my man—he kept hangin' on and was carried up nigh a quarter of a mile.

"Then it occurred to Eleazar to let go. Down he comes, right on the railroad track."

"That is, he would a hit track, I guess, if a train hadn't been rattlin' along just then, which knocked him into a old well that was keenerly left open near by."

"Now, I want to know who I'm goin' to git damages from—the b'loon man, the railroad, or the feller that owns that well?"

The editor of the Maysville Commonwealth blushing confesses that his boss education is so deficient that he doesn't know what a "ringer" is. Well, Samuel, a "ringer" is a horse that runs, not under his own, but under another horse's name. For instance, Polk Badget, a "Maiden," was entered at Latonia, but Tanner, with a record of 1:41, impersonated Polk and won some $30,000 for the perpetrators of the fraud. Again, there was Tom Henry—but let that go. Samivel, beware of the ringers.—Louisville Times.

"Very interesting conversation in here?" asked papa, suddenly trusting his head in through the conservatory door, where Ethel, Mr. Tompkins and little Eva sat very quietly.

"Yes indeed," said Ethel, ready on the instant with a reply. "Mr. Tompkins and I were discussing our kith and kin—weren't we, Eva?"

"Yeth, thath what you wath," replied little Eva. "Mithter Tomkinth thaid, 'May I have a kith?' and Ethel thaid, 'You kin.'"

Stranger—How are the crops?
Farmer—Not wot they ought to be. Too much rain.

Hem! The owner of the farm next to yours complains of not having enough rain.

Well, he's got a darn sight bigger farm than I have.—New York Weekly.

"What are you doing out there, Jennie?" shouted her father.

"I'm just saying good night to George."

"Well, as it takes you so long, I will say it for you—good night, George."

George went so quickly that he forgot to reply.—Exchange.

"If Secretary Blaine has any organic trouble, whereabouts does it lie?" "Only in the Harrison organs."

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—FOR SALE.—300 ewes. Given & Carter. 4t.

—New corn is selling at $1.50 in a number of counties.

—Robert McAllister bought of I. Shelby Tevis 8 mule colts at $60.

—John L. Waters sold to Sim Cook a lot of stock hogs at 34 cents.

—M. B. Routensold to Wilson of Boyle a bunch of fat yearlings at $10.

—B. F. Hayden sold to D. N. Prewitt a lot of butcher cattle at 24 cents.

—Jeff Jones sold to Shelby Harbison, of Lexington, a sorrel gelding for $175.

—R. B. & E. P. Woods have bought of various parties 60 mule colts at from $40 to $80.

—Bourbon county sold 1,445 head of cattle last week that brought to her citizens $250,000.

—The Louisiana sugar crop is reported as likely to reach from 400,000,000 to 500,000,000 pounds.

—B. D. Holtzclaw sold to J. S. Owsley, Sr., 8 yearling steers at 34 and bought of him a brood mare for $85.

—M. S. Baughman sold to D. N. Prewitt a yoke of oxen for $120 and an Alderney bull to Eugene Woods for $15.

—J. E. Bruce bought of G. T. McRoberts 15 acres of land adjoining his farm on Hawkins' Branch at $34 per acre.

—Allerton trotted a mile at Independence, Iowa, in 2:09 with little or no trouble and his owner says he can go in 2:07.

—Richfield & Leathers have refused an offer of $100,000 for the 2-year-old trotting horse Monbars 2:20, for which they paid $7,500 last year.

—John T. Hughes sold to John Long, of Kansas City, his fine team of coach horses for $2,000—said to be the finest pair of coach horses in the State.—Georgetown Times.

—Budd Doble has refused to trot Nancy Hanks against Allerton at Lexington, next month, for $5,000 added money. He says she is an exhibition animal and does not wish to run the risk of having her beaten.

—One of the largest cattle sales made this season was made by S. D. Goff last Thursday to M. Kahn for Goldsmith Bros. 280 head were sold at $5.15 to be delivered about Nov. 1. The cattle will average over 1,600 pounds and will fetch the net little sum of $25,000.—Winchester Sun.

—Mr. J. E. Farris has on his place a young gilt that is sucking a litter of pigs belonging to another sow and seems to furnish sufficient milk for all. Mr. Henry Traylor has a young heifer that is giving about a gallon of milk a day. The above items were given to us by a reliable man who will vouch for their truthfulness.

—The Advocate reports sales of 11-head of 1,100-pound feeding cattle at 34 by T. Love Lillard, a bunch of fat hogs at 44 by J. W. Harlan, J. C. Caldwell bought 150 1,150-pound cattle at 34; D. N. Prewitt bought a bunch of 1,050-lb., Wayne cattle at 28 and D. C. Terhune bought a lot of mule colts at $35 to $75.—Advocate.

—Who would not like to be a race-horse in order to be treated with the distinguished consideration awarded to the great running horse Donovan, the Duke of Portland's proud possession? Donovan was taken from New Market to Welbeck, England, the other day, and so as to insure his traveling with the greatest possible luxury, and prevent his being kept waiting at intermediate stations, like poor ordinary mortals, a special train was retained for his use. A whole retinue of grooms went with him and his slightest wants were attended to throughout the trip with the most scrupulous and minute care. The Duke of Portland has insured Donovan's life for $125,000.

Kentucky's Great Trot.

Every lover of the light harness horse should read the programme of the great trotting meeting ever held, in Kentucky, if not in America, that appears in another column.

The Kentucky T. H. B. Association is the most progressive club of its kind in America and richly deserves the patronage of all. The meeting begins at Lexington, Monday, October 12, (County Court Day), and continues through the week. Every day has unusual attractions and on the first day will be seen the greatest two-year-old race ever witnessed, as then Monbars, Ralph Wilkes and Annoreen come together for the first and only time. On the second day the Transylvania Stake worth not less than $5,000 will be contested for, but the horses do not have to be named till October 1st. This race was won in 1889 by Jack, and in 1890 by McDoel, and has become a fixture of national importance. On the same day Dr. Sparks and Valissa will do battle for the four-year-old crown, and so the public will be treated to two of the greatest contests ever witnessed. Write to Ed A. Tipton, Secretary, Lexington, for list of entries and he will mail it as soon as published.

—With a blow from his fist George Wemles killed Joseph Sheffield in Jefferson county.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Carpenters are fitting new sills to front of Weatherford Hotel and other improvements are contemplated. Indeed our town is dressing up handsomely after a long rest.

—An eye witness of Judge Lynch's operations at Somerset, Monday night a week, was at Hustonville Tuesday afternoon and reported it the most business-like transaction in that line of work of which he ever heard or read.

—A couple of our handsomest boys had a little set to a few days since over a slight misunderstanding, but prompt interposition of friends prevented disfigurement of either. But for such occasional episodes our police officers would be sinecures indeed.

—John A. Frye bought the Williams house and 42 acres of land at Petersburg, near Moreland, at $55 per acre. George Alford sold his farm of 58 acres in same neighborhood to Columbus Wyatt, of Jessamine county, for $3,500, taking in part payment a fine station valued at $1,000.

—G. C. Cowan sold a lot of fancy feeders to a Madison county buyer for 4.35. Mr. C. bought the lot last fall of Hunn & Burns at 3.25, the highest figure paid in this end and thought a rather doubtful investment by many conservatives. But it is an off day when Gill doesn't plant his every shot in the black.

—The great value of the INTERIOR JOURNAL as an advertising medium is again evidenced in the return of Jim Buck, Dr. Brown's Spaniel. He changed to have strayed toward Stanford and his identity was established and he safely restored to his anxious owner, and underwent several hours in advance of Uncle Sam's delivery of the paper at our office.

—Squire Adams and wife are back from a week's visit to relatives in the Hubble neighborhood. Mrs. Camnitz is home after two weeks' pleasant and profitable sight seeing through the three big towns on the northern border. She kept an anxious look out for an extra supply of power she heard the conductor of a stalled electric car order, but never did see it delivered. Misses Lizzie and Blanche Twidwell returned last Friday from Cincinnati.

—Our town is still looking up in the matter of beautifying exteriors. A new street has been graded from Danville Avenue to the College, a good sidewalk laid along that street, as well as new and improved sidewalks in various portions of the city. The old Cooper Hotel was withdrawn at $800. Mr. Cecil was offered $1,500 cash for his property a few years ago, when it was thought by many good citizens that Hustonville would soon be a large railroad town.

—Dry weather is becoming distressing in this end and water wagons are in daily requisition. Springs, which maintained a flow during the drouth of '87 have stopped and others never known dry before are "dry as a powder horn." What was luxuriant fall grass two weeks ago is assuming a midsummer aspect, the foliage of fields and forests is browning with amazing rapidity and a big percent of chaffy corn is an assured misfortune. A few farmers have sown wheat, but most have been compelled to suspend plowing and an experience similar to that of '84 is dreaded. That fall many farmers but fairly began preparations for wheat in September when forced to suspend and it was late in November before enough rain fell to render plowing practicable. That an unusually dry fall was followed by one of the severest winters on record and the wheat crop was nominal in acreage and scarcely worth harvesting in most fields.

There is wonderful devotion in the Fijian converts to their religious duty. They chant the Apostle's Creed and Te Deum, and are very earnest in prayer. They have become honest and industrious and show deep, Christian work in their hearts. It is indeed the work of the Spirit, these islands converted from heathenism and cannibalism in so short a time.

Once when John I. Blair, the octogenarian railroad millionaire of New Jersey, was in the witness box in Kansas City, a lawyer said to him: "Mr. Blair, why is it that your son dresses so stylishly, while you wear clothes that are so plain?" "That is very easy to answer, sir, my son has a rich father. I had a poor father."

The Mail and Express desires it may be remembered that the republican administration secured the admission of the American hog into Germany. And it has enabled a few American hogs to gobble half the wealth of this country. It has always favored the hog.

Totling—"Why do people borrow trouble so much?"

Dimling—"Because it isn't necessary to put up any collateral."—New York Sun.

"There is nothing new under the sun." "Oh, yes, there is. There is a new pair of shoes under my son about once a month."—Puck.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford

FINE BLUE-GRASS FARM FOR SALE.

The Executors of Thomas M. Lillard, deceased, will at his late residence, on offer at public sale his fine Farm of 450 Acres, located on the Danville & Stanford turnpike, four miles from Danville and 1/2 mile from Stanford. This farm must be seen to be appreciated. A few salient points are these: 1st. The land is rich and productive, as the crops now upon it prove. 2d. It is splendidly fenced and watered. 3d. It has been farmed judiciously for 30 years by one of the best farmers in the State and now it is free from all weeds or impediments to the richest returns. 4th. It is so thoroughly improved that no expense will be required on it for years. 5th. The house cost $12,000 and is a large, two-story brick, splendidly built, with 12 rooms, numerous closets and pantries, large halls, basement under whole house and good out-houses. 6th. It is only a mile by pike to Danville, the educational centre of Kentucky. 7th. The neighborhood and social surroundings are nowhere excelled. 8th. It is as good a fine horse and stock farm as can be found. 9th. It is equally as good for grain and annual crops as for stock and grass. 10th. It has been kept largely in grass for many years. Ninety acres will be sown in wheat by the day of sale; the balance of the farm is in grass, except 40 acres reserved for corn.

Terms of sale easy.
At the same time and place will offer for sale a tract of Knob Land containing about 100 acres, well timbered and within half a mile of Junction City. Also the Crops, Stock and Personalty, including ten shares Boyle National Bank Stock.

W. P. WALTON.

Mr. BRUCE HALDEMAN, the excellent Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal, pays this deserved compliment to the best man in the constitutional convention: "A man who has added much to an already enviable reputation by his course in the convention is Mr. R. P. Jacobs, of Danville. He is generally looked up to and has been frequently referred to throughout the latter part of the session by the delegates themselves as the ablest lawyer in the body. Mr. Jacobs would not be very likely to accept a place upon the commission; but there could not be a wiser selection or one that would give more weight and influence to the work of the revision of the statutes. The delegate from Boyle is one of Kentucky's truly big men. As an orator he ranks with the first in the State and that is equivalent to 'with the first in the land.' As a lawyer he has few equals, and as a practical business man he has been very successful. As a statesman and lawmaker he has exhibited preeminent ability, saving the convention from many errors and dissenting from it in many particulars. He is modest and retiring and will probably never seek political honors; but he would grace a seat in the United States Senate, reflecting credit upon his State, and sustaining her high reputation in that august body."

HON. HARVEY M. WATTERSON, the venerable father of the editor of the Courier-Journal, is lying at the point of death at the residence of his son in Louisville. He is the sole survivor of the 26th Congress, having been the youngest member of that body, and during the years of his active life was a distinguished figure in national politics. His knowledge of public men and affairs was prodigious, and to the date of his present illness, he retained extraordinary vitality of mind and body. With him will pass away the last of the close personal friends of Gen. Jackson, who was his godfather. During the days of sectional conflict he was a strong advocate of the Union.—Louisville Times.

THE CON. CON. DIES HARD. The majority of the members hate to give up that $5 a day and will hold on as long as possible. The body will not adjourn this week. Possibly another week we may be able to sing a psalm over its remains. Let us pray for such a consummation.

DR. BURCHARD, of Rumb, Romanism and Rebellion fame, is about to go where the wicked cease from troubling and where the politicians can not get in and disturb his rest.

THOSE who attended the Charity Exposition at Lexington say it was a fake of the worst kind, not even coming up to the standard of Tobe Grider's show.

NEWSY NOTES.

—The Lexington Stove Foundry burned Tuesday. Loss $18,000.

—A State convention of bankers will be held in Louisville October 21st and 22d.

—Tommy Warren was defeated by Cal McCarthy in a prize fight at New Orleans.

—Owensboro is making a hard fight against the gambling houses of that enterprising little city.

—Frank Patterson, a noted Harrodsburg gambler, was arrested in Louisville on the charge of stealing rings.

—Intensely hot weather has parched the wooded districts and forest fires are raging in Northern Minnesota.

—Harvard College is 225 years old, and has graduated 17,000 students. A little more than half of them are living.

—Thieves, whose location and identity are unknown, robbed the London and Westminster Bank of about $1,250,000.

—Fire at Fort Worth, Texas, destroyed the Ellis Hotel and two smaller buildings. The loss is $150,000 with $22,000 insurance.

—Michael Karofa, a jilted lover at Cleveland, Ohio, killed his unfaithful sweetheart and then blew his own brains out.

—Ex-Governor Albert Moorehouse, of Missouri, committed suicide Tuesday by cutting his throat. He had been in bad health for some time.

—The Dallas, Texas, fair grounds stables burned Monday. Twelve trotting horses belonging to H. B. Sanburn and seven other fine horses were cremated.

—Hamilton B. Smith, a bachelor of 40, and Miss Nora Floyd, a pretty lassie of 19 summers, were married Wednesday. Both parties live in the South Fork section.

—Three of the Beasleys who figured in the killing of old man Jordan in Mercer, have surrendered to the officers, but he two who figured most conspicuously are still at large.

—The magistrates of Polaski elected Lincoln Denton to fill the unexpired term of Sheriff McHargue. The bondsmen of the latter appointed Walter Elrod to collect the taxes.

—W. E. G. Ritchy, a well known and wealthy city of Allen county, was shot from ambush by unknown parties as he was riding along a public road in the eastern part of the county.

—Luther Vittoe, of Hardin county, is the father of 37 children.

—The manufacture of false teeth for horses is a new industry just opened in Paris with a capital of 2,000,000 francs.

—Simpson Bush has been convicted at Stanton of the murder of his wife, and the jury fixed his punishment at death. —The miners at Jellico declare they do not intend to release the convicts at Briceville and Coal Creek, as was reported.

—All available cattle are being shipped from this country into Mexico to escape the new Mexican tariff which goes into effect Nov. 1.

—Capt. John Lighthoot, a native of Kentucky, and one of the five men who organized the Grand Army of the Republic, is dead at Bloomington, Ill.

—A joint debate between Major McKinley and Gov. Campbell has been arranged for Ada, O., Oct. 8. Campbell has the opening and the closing of the debate.

—The 72d grand encampment of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, is in session at St. Louis. Over 50,000 members and their families are in attendance.

—Petitions are being signed all over the United States for the pardon of Mrs. Maybrick, the American convicted of poisoning her husband in England. Her death sentence has already been commuted to life imprisonment.

—The gales which have been doing such destructive work throughout England are increasing in violence all along the coast. The damage is very great, the injury to the crops generally in many sections being irreparable.

—The Ocala resolutions, to be demanded of the next Congress by the Farmers' Alliance, failed in the Georgia Legislature for indorsement. Although the Legislature is an Alliance body, the resolutions were disapproved by a vote of 81 to 63.

—A farmer of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who did not like inquiries about his mortgages, and who wrote Mr. Porter, superintendent of the census, to "Mind your own business," has, in consequence been arrested and turned over to a Federal grand jury.

—Editor H. P. Robinson, of the Railway Age, and Miss Minnie Lowrey, daughter of Millionaire Thomas Lowrey, of Minneapolis, were married there Tuesday. It was the most magnificent wedding ever held in the Northwest. The bride's gift from her father was $200,000.

—O. M. Shelby, charged with the murder of Mrs. Moore, is at Bardwell awaiting trial. His relatives are armed and declare that he shall not meet the fate of his nephew, Evan Shelby, indicted for the same murder, who was hanged by a mob after having been given a new trial by the court of appeals.

—It is very much to be regretted that so much time is taken up by the trial of criminals in the courts of the State as to make it exceedingly difficult to obtain trials in civil cases. The "Commonwealth" is so much greater than the people that the people must take back seats until the law-breakers are disposed of.

—The following remarkable roster of names is said to be found in the list of Kentucky post-offices: Eighty Eight, Seventy Six, Goforth, Sunrise, Home, Utility, Wideawake, Headquarters, Nonesuch, Skylight, Bac, Pink, Holy Cross, Goodnight, Zero, Phil, Small, Quail, Alone, Tolon, Nancy, O. K. and Alex.

—The Hon. W. C. Whitthorne, of Tennessee, died near Columbia Monday, his health having been poor for several years. Mr. Whitthorne's long service in both branches of Congress gave him a national reputation, his ability and activity as Chairman of the House Committee on Naval Affairs resulting in much good both to his party and the country.

—The suicide of President Balmaceda ends a singular career. He sought to be a dictator of Chili, against the will of his congress and his people. He was beaten. Too weak to succeed, he died a coward's death. One shocking feature of the affair—almost hideous—is the open rejoicing of the people over his self-murder. And yet it may be pleaded in extenuation that they have suffered much.

—The general traffic manager and the general freight agent of the Lehigh and Wabash Fast Freight Line have been indicted at Kansas City by the Federal grand jury under the Interstate Commerce Law.

—The firm of S. V. White & Co., of which "Deacon" White, the New York ex-congressman, is the head, has assigned, both at New York and Chicago. They were long on corn. The markets were not much affected by the assignment. White's private fortune is estimated at $2,000,000.

—Hot weather has dried up the grass in Wisconsin and the State is suffering from forest and prairie fires. Everything burns like tinder and it is thought the losses will exceed those from the fires of the last spring. The village of Comstock was nearly destroyed and the town of Cumberland is in great danger.

—In engrossing the new constitution the convention is adhering to the work previously adopted and but few alterations are being made. The engrossing clerk has been forbidden to paraphrase the various sections because the delegates feared some smooth penman of the future might succeed in tacking on, before or after, a paragraph, something which should not be there.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Dr. John Bryan Bowman, founder of Kentucky University, and for many years its Regent, died at Harrodsburg Tuesday in his 67th year.

—B. B. Bruce, one of the best known live stock men in America and secretary of the Louisville Jockey Club, died very suddenly of apoplexy at his home in Lexington. He was 64 years of age and his whole life was devoted stock interests.

—The Rev. H. T. Daniel, of Richmond, well-known here, died there Monday after an illness of peritonitis. Mr. Daniel was born in Mt. Vernon, Ind., and was 40 years of age. He was raised in Madison county. At the time of his death he was traveling in the interest of the Baptist church at Williamsburg. He leaves a wife.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Eld. H. T. Wilson, of Harrodsburg, the washing machine man, has invented a burglar alarm.

—Rev. B. Helm has applied for a copyright on his tract, Scriptural Baptism from a Bible Standpoint.

—Rev. L. H. Blanton was elected moderator of the Transylvania Presbytery in session at Middlesboro.

—The smallest church in the world is at St. Lawrence, near Ventnor, Isle of Wight. It has a seating capacity for 12 persons.

—Rev. A. V. Sizemore writes that he will not be able to fill his appointment at the Baptist church Sunday, but will preach here Sunday week instead.

—The Christian churches of Lincoln county will hold their fall co-operation missionary convention at Hustonville, on Saturday, Oct. 3d, commencing at 10 A. M. W. L. Williams.

—Rev. Howard McQuerry, of the Episcopal church, of Ohio, who was about to be deposed for denying the marvelous conception and bodily resurrection of Christ, has voluntarily withdrawn and joined the Universalists.

—Rev. R. A. Haden writes that the 10 missionaries of the Southern Presbyterian church, en route for China and Japan, had a warm welcome and impressive farewell service in Kansas City on Sunday and left in good spirits Monday via U. P. R. R. for San Francisco.

—Bishop Foster, of the Northern Methodist church, denounces the whole scheme of roving, irresponsible evangelists. He does not believe they are any benefit to the church, but often a serious injury. He says Methodist preachers of local appointment can do their own evangelistic work and not farm it out to others.

—The protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church is still growing in interest and the members are being greatly awakened in their zeal. There has been only one addition to date but great good has been done and the meeting will not soon be forgotten. Rev. Mr. Spencer has proved himself a most excellent preacher and has greatly endeared himself to the people of this community.

LOVE AND DUTY.—A fickle maiden's utter disregard of a lover's lacerated heartstrings is well illustrated in a case which has just been settled by the government.

A New York lover wooed and won a maiden, as he had a right to believe, and she went abroad, carrying with her the engagement ring. In her case, we lament to say, absence did not make the heart grow fonder, but just the reverse. In a short time back came the engagement ring. It was delivered to the young man through the medium of the custom-house, together with the information that there was $40 duty on it.

It is bad enough to be jilted at any time and under any circumstances, but worse when a McKinley tariff is added. The heartbroken youth, blighted as to his affections, still had his commercial wits about him and so he appealed to Washington.

Secretary Foster, once a lover himself, could not restore the love that was lost, but he speedily ruled that as the ring was of domestic manufacture and had "not been improved in condition or increased in value while abroad," it should be returned to the owner duty free.

And so they were not married.—New York Advertiser.

It costs something to live and a good deal to die; in fact, everything costs, says a bright exchange. Some one estimates that getting born costs the people of the United States $250,000,000 annually; getting married $300,000,000, and getting buried $75,000,000. It might be added that getting drunk costs the people of the United States more than $900,000,000 annually, or over 1½ times as much as getting born, married and buried put together, and more than all the bread and meat consumed in the nation.

The copper monopoly is one of the pets of McKinleyism. It is capitalized at $125,000,000. Since the trust was formed it has yielded in dividends over $60,000,000 and it sells its product to foreign buyers cheaper than it is sold to American citizens.

JAMES Lane Allen, the charming southern writer, lives in a little frame house on the pike road just out of Lexington. Here he does all his work and is at present engaged upon a new story of Kentucky life.

Near the village of Galera, in Peru, more than 15,000 feet above sea level, a tunnel 4,000 feet long is being constructed for railway purposes. The tunnel will be 600 feet above perpetual snow line.

Humboldt calculated the mean level of North America to be 748 feet above the sea, and he found that in 4,500,000 years the whole North America might be worn down to the sea level.

LITTLE JIM BURTON is a lad of more than ordinary courage. Tuesday night he heard a noise in his father's hen-house and securing a fowling piece, went out to see what the trouble was. He saw a burly negro just leaving the chicken roost and fired a load of bird shot at him that will no doubt scare off his thieving intentions for a while.

JUDGE VARNON has developed into a match maker. Tuesday Lou Teaters was tried before him for keeping a disorderly house and fined $20. The judge intimated that if she and her man would marry he would remit the fine, so she hunted him up and was soon changed to Mrs. Ed Johnson. The fine was accordingly remitted and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson now live legally together.

THE Louisville Commercial contains a sensational article concerning Miss Lizzie Adams, of the Crab Orchard vicinity. The dispatch states that the young lady was unfortunate enough to give birth to a child and that the name of more than one prominent citizen is associated with the scandal. The young lady, however, refuses to name the author of her shame and says she will die before she will reveal the paternity of her infant.

THE stock train on the Kentucky Central jumped the track three miles beyond Lancaster, Tuesday, and the passenger, which should have gotten here at 5:20 that afternoon was delayed and came puffing in at 7:30 the following morning. Four cars left the track and were all badly demolished, but fortunately nobody was hurt. Prior to this delay the K. C. has been running on its schedule time for several months and was rapidly losing its reputation as being the most uncertain as well as the slowest road in the world.

AN elderly lady, giving her name as Mrs. M. Petrahr stopped at the Myers House Tuesday and registered for the night. There was nothing peculiar in her actions and consequently little notice was taken of her save by the landlord, who, of course saw that she was well cared for. On Wednesday morning, while in conversation with the proprietor, she informed him that she was a missionary and was there to warn him of the punishment that awaits the wicked. Mrs. Petrahr also stated that the world was coming to an end within a few hours and went on talking in a very scattering way. Mr. Green soon saw that there was something wrong and summoned Dr. Carpenter to see what the trouble was. On the Dr.'s arrival she began to draw her breath as if strangled and declared that she would die if she was not packed away in ice. Dr. Carpenter attended to her wants and soon had her more comfortable, when she again began to talk at random and it was easily seen that she was wrong mentally. Judge Varnon ordered a trial of the unfortunate lady and the jury brought in a verdict to the effect that she was of unsound mind, when she was ordered to be taken to an asylum. On the witness stand she stated that she was from Paris, France, but knew not where she was going, nor did she know the whereabouts of a single relative or friend. Mrs. Petrahr is about 45 years old, quite fleshy and comparatively speaking a good looking woman.

A. H. RICE now represents the Central Ky. Hedge Co. in Lincoln county, and will be pleased to see all contemplating to set hedge next spring.

WE have a quantity of very good second-class lumber, suitable for outbuildings, etc., that we are selling at $1 for 100 feet on our yard. Sine & Menefee.

MR. B. D. Holtzclaw has received his commission as postmaster at Walnut Flat and will open the office on Oct. 1st. The mail will be carried to the office from Rowland.

RAN SMITH, who was so brutally assaulted last week, was worse yesterday and murder will, in all probability, be added to the crime of robbery, of which his assailants are guilty.

THE young men composing the Merry Bachelors' Hop Club had intended giving another of their delightful hops this week, but on account of the protracted meeting have postponed it.

W. S. WIGHAM has sworn out a warrant against Augden Bridgewater for making an assault on him with a knife when he asked him for money he owed. The trial will likely occur here to-morrow.

A TRAVELING man who "makes" Stanford every 30 days, and who, by the way, is a good judge of beauty, told an I. J. reporter the other day, that he saw more pretty girls in Stanford than in any of the 20 odd towns he goes to.

THE Boston Ideal Minstrels will hold the boards at Walton's Opera House, Friday night, Oct. 2. Mr. E. E. Willard, the advance agent, arrived yesterday and says that the company is one of the strongest on the road this season and is doing a big business.

LITTLE LUCILLE, the seven-year-old daughter of Mr. F. M. Ansley, fell through a trap door into the cellar of her father's house, Wednesday night, and was severely hurt. Her head was badly bruised and cut and the suffering of the little one was intense.

HALF FARE TO ST. LOUIS.—Excursion tickets at one fare for the round trip will be sold by agents of the Queen & Crescent Route at Coupon Stations in Kentucky and Tennessee. Also by all agents of the Louisville Southern railroad on Oct. 4 to 9, good for return until Oct. 12, account the Veiled Prophets Procession.

A DELICIOUS tea was given by Messrs. A. G. Whitley and R. G. Price, at Danville, Wednesday evening, in honor of Misses Nan and Kit Baughman, the Misses Owseley, of this place, and their guests, Misses Underwood and McElwain. Messrs. J. H. Baughman and J. S. Owseley, Jr., accompanied the young ladies over and were present.

THE formal announcement of Sheriff J. N. Menefee for re-election appears in this issue. Mr. Menefee's faithfulness as an officer and his high standing as a gentleman and a democrat are so well known as to render it useless for us to more than refer to them. What he has done in the past is an earnest of what he will do in the future if his constituents honor him by an endorsement.

A DISPATCH to the Courier-Journal from Crab Orchard says: Two neighboring youths, Frank Bastin and Joe Henry, aged respectively 12 and 19, while on their way to church at Highland became involved in a quarrel as to which should have the empty pint bottle which they had just drained of its liquor, and Bastin drew his pocket-knife and plunged it up to the handle in his companion's side. Henry, it is thought, will die.

THE writer had the pleasure of going and returning from Cincinnati on Capt. E. A. Sherman's train and found him an unusually clever and painstaking official. The trains on the popular Q. & C. are crowded now, but he manages to store the passengers away comfortably and do some little kindness for each, which gives him a warm place in their memories. The Captain is a trump and his road is to be congratulated on playing so good a one.

IT is an extremely unpleasant piece of business to chronicle the erring deeds of mankind and when we do so we are prompted by no personal motive nor is it the outburst of pent up animosity. On the contrary it is our duty and an allegiance to the newspaper profession to expose to public view the acts of the law-breaker, regardless of financial or family standing. This we should, beyond doubt, do in the case of a certain party, of this place, whose life, for a great part, has been spent in doing those things which are damaging to his family as well as detrimental to society, but for the sake of a loving wife, whose forbearance nearly equals that of good old Job, we withhold both the name and the penal crime of which he is beyond doubt guilty. 'Tis true, that by timely aid from friends he was saved from the disgrace of punishment, but that made the crime no less worse and the narrow escape he has made we hope, will be a lesson, so profitable, that he will turn from the wicked walks of life and from now hence try and make reparation for the pain and anguish he has given a father, whose locks are gray with years, and a wife, whose loyalty, notwithstanding all, has been beautiful in the extreme.
